

REPORT ON

TRAINING PROGRAMME FOR STUDENT VERIFIERS OF THE ORUNODOI
BENEFICIARIES OF HOJAI DISTRICT

Orunodoi or Aranodoi Scheme is a new scheme under the Government of Assam that was launched on 2nd October 2020 which envisages providing financial help to more than 24 lakh poor household in the state. In view of attainment of this objective, a letter from the Director of Higher Education had been sent to the Principals of government and provincialized colleges to deploy students and carry out surveys. The letter mentioned that preference should be given to students with NCC/NSS backgrounds while selecting members of the survey teams. Furthermore, the letter also suggested that two teams with two members each will be constituted for each gaon panchayat area. In compliance with this order from the State government of Assam to deploy college students to carry out house-to-house surveys of beneficiaries of the Orunodoi scheme from August 1 to ascertain their economic status, Lumding College conducted a training session of 70 undergraduate students on 2nd August, 2022 in the conference hall of the college.

Sri G.C. Bharmma, ADC of Hojai and Sri Dharani Das, District Manager of DITEC, Hojai were invited as the master trainers of the programme. The selection of the students to carry out the surveys was arranged and monitored by the NSS and Extension Activities Cell, IQAC, Lumding College. Teachers and other officials who are appointed as supervisors also attended the programme.
