Report on Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and Sensitization of students and employees to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The institution makes immense effort in providing inclusive environment towards cultural, regional, linguistic and communal diversities.

Inclusive environment: We as a family celebrate freshman social where the diverse culture of the different ethnic groups in the entire locality showcases their richness and tradition in the form of dance, music, songs, etc. In the main cultural show of the Annual College Week, different dances and songs of various tribes, communities are performed. Workshops on Bihu was also regularly organised during the period. The College is a cultural hub, in this context, as we have different religious communities and tribes who study at peace in communal harmony. The students are from different religious and communities and include Bihari, Marwaris, Bengalee, Kachari, Dimasa, Nepalis, etc. Cultural and Literary Activities Committee, Lumding College Students Union, Cultural Heritage Cell, Women Cell, ACTA unit, Lumding College, Academic Departments and the Murchana- cultural club of the college has organised a number of activities for the promotion of cultural and literary works during the period. The institution through its various departments provides inclusive environment by treating everyone equally and organizing some programmes like Freshers Social for every new batch of students so that they feel comfortable and equal with other students. Value Education Committee and some academic Departments has also organised value added lectures for the students. The College has made it mandatory for all students to wear the prescribed uniform so that there is equality in the economic front as well.

Constitutional obligations: NSS and Extension Activity Cell, Lumding College carry out different activities having connection with fundamental rights, duties and responsibilities of Indian citizens. The Political Science department, Education Department and the Electoral Literacy Club of the College along with other committees and cells also has carried out a lot of programmes to educate the students about rights and responsibilities of citizens. Faculties of the college has also engaged in various activities in the context of constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.

The following year-wise report on celebration of national and international commemorative days, events and festivals clearly explains the efforts of the institution in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socio-economic and sensitization of students and employees to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens.
